THE ONLY WAY

Many Barre Citizens Have Discovered It.

Just what to do when the kidneys are affected, is a question that concerns both young and old. Weak kidneys neglected in childhood lead to life-long suffering. People of advanced years, with less vitality, suffer doubly. In youth or age, languor, backache, urinary irregularity, dizziness and nervousness make life a burden.

There is one remedy that acts directly on the kidneys and cures these troubles. Don's Kidney Pills owe their worldwide fame to the fact that they cure sick kidneys and cure them permanently. Follow the example of this Barre citizen and you will be convinced that this is the way.

Mrs. Eliza Mitchell, 42 Maple avenue, Barre, Vt., says: "I was subject to attacks of kidney complaint for some time. The passages of the kidney secretions were too frequent and I also had terrible pains in my back and hips. I had dizzy spells and any cold I caught was sure to make the trouble worse. My son had used Don's Kidney Pills and been so greatly benefited by them that I decided to give them a trial. I got a box at E. A. Brown's drug store and had taken but a few doses when I experienced relief. The pains in my back gradually diminished, the kidney secretions became more regular and my general health was improved. I consider it a pleasure as well as a duty to make the value of this remedy known to other kidney sufferers."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Don's—and take no other.

"Yama" Coming.

An announcement of interest to the theatregoers of Barre is that of the coming of Alfred E. Aarons's celebrated musical comedy success, "Yama," to the opera house on Friday, April 16. Mr. Aarons is celebrated for the atmosphere of refinement and originality which permeates his offerings, whether of the dramatic or musical kind, and in "Yama" he certainly has lived up to his reputation.

The company which presents "Yama" is a large and carefully selected one, at the head of which is Mr. J. Clarence Harvey, well known for his clever work in Mr. Aarons's successes, "His Honor the Mayor," Miss Violet Colby, formerly prima donna with "The Chinese Honeymoon" company, has the principal singing role, and Alfred E. Aarons's dancing dolls will also be featured members of the company.

The chorus will consist of dainty well dressed girls, and the singing and dancing numbers will be of the breeziest kind. This season Mr. Aarons has equipped the show with an entirely new scenic investiture.

J. C. Rockwell's New Sunny South Co.

J. C. Rockwell's new Sunny South Co. company, which will appear in the Barre opera house, machine and night, Saturday, April 17, is said to be an exceptionally strong one, both in quality and quantity. Everything is new, modern, high class, refined and up to date to the minute. The comedy, which abounds throughout the performance, is said to be of an unusually diverting character and is free from the horse play usually seen in performances of this kind. There are several high class and thrilling vaudeville turns introduced, which will make the audience sit up, look and listen. There is plenty of fun in the production, in fact, the performance was built for laughing purposes only and is generally conceded to be the funniest show since time began. The organization is composed of many well known dancers, comedians and vaudeville artists. If you want to hear bright, jingly music that will send you home whistling, happy and contented, attend the Sunny South and your expectations will be realized.

The organization is accompanied by a high-class solo concert band and a superb orchestra. The band will lead the Kootenay parade, which takes place at noon.

"Yama" at the Barre Opera House on Friday Evening.

Mr. Alfred E. Aarons's announcement that he will present at the opera house on next Friday evening his successful Oriental musical comedy, "Yama," should be of interest to those who take enjoyment in a program of light musical offerings interspersed with an abundance of laughs, catchy songs, lively dances and lots of pretty girls. Mr. J. Clarence Harvey, who made such a distinct hit as the mayor in "His Honor the Mayor" company, is the principal comedian, supported by a capable company of fifty people, including Miss Violet Colby and Alfred E. Aarons's dancing dolls, and Mr. Aarons's reputation as a producer of musical comedy should in itself be a guarantee of the high order of both company and production.

The cadets who have taken up cavalry drill have made remarkable progress considering the limited winter accommodations. Although the old drill hall is altogether inadequate for the purpose, the students have attained great efficiency in riding. Captain Chapman, U. S. A., the commandant, is right at home in the saddle and he has inculcated the spirit into those under his training to a remarkable degree. If the present progress is maintained, as no doubt it will be, he will show commencement visitors in June that the new feature of cavalry training at the university is a pronounced success.
